

OFFICE OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

First Nations Careers Council

From Government House, the ceremonial home of all British Columbians, I am pleased to congratulate the First Nations Careers Council on its official launch. As technology advances there is increasing demand in the sector for knowledgeable people. The First Nations Careers Council will help students gain the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed in the technology field. It is necessary for the advancement and preservation of culture to move with the times. I am grateful to the Council for its commitment to helping First Nations students succeed.

As the representative of Her Majesty The Queen and on behalf of all the people of British Columbia, I thank the members of the First Nations Careers Council for their energy, innovation and dedication to their profession. I wish the Council all the best for a successful future.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "S. Point", written on a light-colored background.

The Honourable Steven L. Point, OBC
Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia